Description

- Who can count all the children's tears? Who can see everything that these children's eyes have witnessed?
- Guardian Angel! Hope and Protection.
- The "Guardian Angel" is a unique coin that symbolizes our brittleness, protection, and care. Guardian Angels are often seen as benevolent and supernatural beings tasked with safeguarding individuals, especially children, from harm and adversity, they serve as a source of solace, providing an unwavering sense of security and vigilance.
- High relief, impeccable attention to details and masterful work let to very expressively conveyed the fragility of the theme and the emotions.

- Coin shows children depicted traveling through the world of adults. In our era, when the darkness envelops many corners of our planet, The great guardian angel sees each one of them and collects each tear with an invisible hand. In your prayers, remember those who need help so desperately now. Assist those in need, and your guardian angel will be with you, protecting you throughout your days.

- The obverse of the coin specifies the 5-dollar denomination and the public seal of Niue. The bottom of the seal shows two crossed katoua cleaving clubs, the symbol of the Niue Island, and there is the motto of Niue above them, atua tukulagi. Everything is surrounded by a laurel leaf.
